Her Music

One of Her Favorites - His Eye is on the Sparrow

I sing because I'm happy,
I sing because I'm free,
For His eye is on the sparrow,
and I know He watches me.
"Let not your heart be troubled,"
His tender word I hear,
And resting on His goodness,
I lose my doubts and fears;
Though by the path He leadeth,
but one step I may see;
His eye is on the sparrow,
and I know He watches me;
His eye is on the sparrow,
and I know He watches me.

Fran's love for children ...

Will always be remembered.

Frances Cuttone, a friendly, vivacious personality, was born and raised here in Bristol, PA. Her fun loving character brought laughter to many and made her a well-loved employee at Rohm and Haas where she worked for 40 years.

Her parents, Joseph and Catherine Cuttone, raised her in the ways of the Lord and brought her to Bristol Pentecostal Church where she learned from God's Word, as she listened to Sunday School teachers and Pastors who served the Lord within this local assembly.

When Pastor DiPietro came to Bristol Assembly of God in the year 2000, Frances Cuttone was quick to serve, quick to encourage and quick to give herself as a helper in the ministry of this local church. From 2000 to 2005 Frances honored the Lord with her generous giving, her singing, her teaching, and her ministry of helps, serving on the Official Board and Executive Board, while also assisting Marcia in the office.

It is no doubt that children and youth were her favorite age group and she blessed these young ones by taking them on special outings, teaching the elementary class God's Word every week, helping get Faith Factor started, and loving on those who needed hugs of encouragement.

Frances was a vital part of Bristol Assembly of God and its ministry to all. Her laughter and love will long be remembered and appreciated. Today we remember Frances and her prayer that the children would know God and be comforted in His arms.

With joy today we dedicate the Frances Cuttone Children's Center to the honor of Almighty God praying that many children and youth receive the salvation that is only offered through our Lord Jesus Christ, and as they are filled with the power of the Holy Spirit, to live victoriously by faith worshipping the one true God who loves them and gave Himself for them.
